A spectacular lush parcel of land of approx. 23 acres. Evergreen country with a picturesque creek running through the property all year round. Over the years this land has also benefited from the planting of many deciduous trees which are now mature and fully established providing a spectacular botanic setting for your future house site. A section of the land is quite steep and provides natural barriers and hidden valleys. Build your dream home on this secluded parcel of land (STPC) and live the good life! And there is power nearby! Create endless walking trails, through your very own Eucalypt Forest and once you reach the highest points you will be rewarded with incredible vistas extending over pristine countryside. Bull Creek is a hidden gem, a few minutes' drive to the quaint market town of Meadows and about 15 minutes to the larger service town of Strathalbyn. Pop into your local pub at Ashbourne, the famous "Greenman Inn" for a quick drink, or a longer lunch. Also close to McLaren Vale wineries and Adelaide CBD is a comfortable 40-minute drive. Don't hesitate - secure your very own country retreat in this fabulous "City commutable" location.
