Nestled on just over half an acre, this prime building allotment eagerly awaits your vision. Boasting a sun-drenched north-facing orientation and water views overlooking the Esperance Narrows, this property is strategically positioned for the creation of your permanent residence or holiday getaway. Enjoying a low-density residential zoning, the location is not only convenient but also promising. Within walking distance lies the Dover Golf Club, offering recreational opportunities, while a short drive takes you to the supermarket and the serene Kent Beach. For fishing and boating enthusiasts, a mere few minutes' drive leads to the convenient boat ramp. Positioned on the route to notable tourist attractions like Hastings Cave and the southernmost point of Australia, Cockle Creek, this property offers not just a piece of land but a gateway to unforgettable experiences. Seize this wonderful opportunity to claim your own slice of land in this charming seaside village. Contact us today for additional details and take the first step toward making your coastal dreams a reality.
