Hidden away in the famous Cambanoora Gorge is this 100 acre bush block with only the gurgle of the flowing creek to break the silence. Set in Adjinbilly Road, this road is far away from the busy Condamine River Road. A one room cabin would be ideal for weekends or a short holiday. An elevated home site is amongst the eucalyptus trees looking down the valley. Now priced at $445,000, Cambanoora Gorge properties are seldom available. This property has been reduced by $45,000. Please note you will need a 4wd to inspect this property as there are approximately 11 creek crossings that need to be driven through to arrive at the property.
