Four bedrooms, two bathrooms plus a study comfortably included in the size of this design? You bet! And there's more. Storage has also been cleverly thought out. A huge walk-in linen closet in the laundry helps keep things organised and the second linen cupboard just past the entrance hall can double up as a coat closet when welcoming guests, or to change shoes in before entering living zones. The kitchen island bench overlooks the family and meals area so you can catch your favourite show or remain part of the dinner conversation even if you find yourself running to the kitchen.
