flat and fully fenced this Torrens Titled courtyard allotment is ready to be built upon. Situated within a short stroll to Renmark Square, Town Centre and only minutes to the beautiful Renmark waterfront. Tightly held location where allotments of this size and price hard to find. Representing a great and affordable opportunity to build your new home, investment property or holiday home. First home buyers could take advantage of the various Government incentives to build a new home and get a start in the property market. The allotment is located near the intersection of Pyap Street and Nineteenth Street.
