St Leonards is the fastest growing urban corridor in Launceston and the reason why is families are seeking good land to build their dream home on with a short commute to the city and great access to schools and amenities. It is a short distance to the shopping hubs of either Newstead or Kings Meadows and there are multiple schools nearby catering for all educational requirements. Shepherds Run Estate is a prime example of what people are seeking, well priced, good sized blocks of land with great views back over the city and valley. With all services provided and no restrictions on home design, this definitely the area to consider for your next home. For full details please call today.
