Located only 25 kilometers from Launceston's busy CBD, this pristine 20-hectare parcel of vacant land offers an opportunity to embrace nature and seclusion. With no existing structures, it's a blank canvas for your dreams of rural and off grid living. The current owners have had the property fully surveyed, both external and internal building envelope boundaries. The property includes a generous 1.93-hectare approved building envelope, strategically positioned to potentially provide breathtaking views once a home is built. While the immediate surroundings have not been cleared, it presents an exciting opportunity to shape your ideal environment and enjoy the incredible vistas this location has to offer. This location offers a harmonious blend of tranquility and accessibility, with a nearby free-flowing creek providing an idyllic escape from city life while remaining just a short 5-minute drive from the nearby township of Lilydale. Don't miss the chance to make your vision of rural living a reality on this spacious and pristine 20-hectare plot of land with the potential for stunning panoramic views.
