Brookview Gingin is a beautiful new estate positioned on the doorstep of the Gingin town centre providing all the amenity that you need for a secure and relaxed country lifestyle without compromise. Stage 1 is a limited release of 19 residential homesites ranging from approximately 1,000m² to 2,500m². Lot 80 Brockman Street is a massive 2,465 sqm corner lot with a 100m frontage to Brockman Street and depth of up to 44m. It offers amazing rural views and is just a short walk to all local amenities. The width of this block would suit a rural homestead-style build to take advantage of the view. The estate has been designed to enhance the unique landscape of the area by retaining the majestic trees throughout the estate, providing homesites with the opportunity for your new home to be nestled amongst the established trees with district views towards Gingin Brook. Brookview Gingin will provide a new local shopping centre, scheduled to commence development later this year. This will provide a new full-line supermarket and specialty retail shops expanding the offering of town centre amenity for the local community.
