

Lot 94 George Street, Port Wakefield, SA 5550

Sold Residential Land

Wednesday, 7 February 2024

Lot 94 George Street, Port Wakefield, SA 5550

Area: 3926 m2

Type: Residential Land

Scott Bockmann
0427519628

$100,100

The subject properties are former railway land located approximately 98 radial Kilometres north of Adelaide in the rural township of Port Wakefield Port Wakefield is identified as the gateway to the Yorke Peninsula and Mid-North regions, making this the ideal location for a savvy Commercial Investor looking to acquire large sites to build or re-develop (Subject to Necessary consents). This rare land offering is one of two of varying configurations and sizes with this particular allotment being approximately 3,946 sqms and located on the northern fringe of the township which has numerous services that are serviced by a dual lane highway through the eastern edge of the town that is seen as a major transportation corridor for both commercial and domestic travelers. The Port Wakefield community is made of a mix of agriculture, fishing, retail and factory orientated employees. Zoned: Neighbourhood. Contact Scott Bockmann at our Ray White Yorke Peninsula Ardrossan office on 0427 519 628.