This fantastic opportunity will allow you to establish your new home within walking distance of the beach in Dover. With over half an acre to enjoy, with a small creek that runs through the block, there is a real possibility to create something very special here. Power is right by the property boundary and the area is filling with quality homes. From here, you can easily access the Dover township which provides shopping, services, and a local high school. The area is loved for its boating, fishing, and kayaking and is close to stunning bushwalks and pristine beaches. Hobart is around an hour away. Phone or email for further information and to organise your appointment to view.
