This block has become available in the country town of Georgetown. It is on the main road as you drive through this historic country town. It is near Gladstone and Crystal Brook, and the large regional towns of Port Pirie and Port Augusta. It is near the Flinders Ranges, and the wine regions to the south like the Clare Valley. It is close to all the amenities of the larger regional towns with the peace and tranquillity of living in a small country town. It is the gate way to the iconic Flinders Ranges and other tourist areas. It is only 3 hour's drive from Adelaide, and a similar time to the large regional towns on the Eyre peninsula of Whyalla and Port Lincoln. It is close to the beach tourist towns of Moonta, Wallaroo and Kadina on the York peninsula and the amazing beaches there. This is a rare opportunity to get a well maintained and fenced property with 3 concrete floored sheds. It has a number of trees and some plants and grass area. It is an opportunity in make an investment, or to land bank it or to even develop the site, "subject to council consent". This property has a lot of options, with water connected, and a couple of taps, and electricity at the front of the property , able to be connected easily..
