Located in the highly sought after West Pingelly district this quality farming property will be offered for sale by public auction at Elders Pingelly branch at 11.00 am on Friday 17 November 2023. The property features strong York Gum, Jam and granite loam soils with much of the land gently sloping and opened up for easy cropping. Good water is available from several bores, dams and a soak. The farm is fenced into six paddocks and has a basic sheep yard setup. With no sheds or house to worry about this is a great opportunity to secure good quality farmland west of Pingelly. Call now to book your property inspection ready for auction day.
