A sublime waterfront family residence and the epitome of Sydney Harbour living, this home offers breathtaking views across Sailors Bay, cascading down to 2 jetties/pontoons with a boat shed alongside its waterfront pool. By architect Michael Suttor and interior designer Thomas Hamel, the Mediterranean-inspired retreat spans masses of internal space, with 2 self-contained one-bedroom apartments having their own separate entries, offering flexibility for extended family life, teenagers, guests and more. With formal and informal living spaces, the grand entertaining areas include 4 sandstone terraces and a level garden area, all perfectly oriented to take in the north aspect. Additional highlights include a large sunroom, bedrooms with terraces and ensuites, 3-car garage, wine cellar, ducted a/c, and ample storage space throughout. A 5-minute walk to Clive Park and a 15-minute drive to the CBD, it's an unparalleled opportunity where luxurious waterside living meets Sydney convenience.
