If you want to be in the centre of Port Kembla's growing shopping precinct, then you need to be on Wentworth Street. And with this site, you have an established space that you'll instantly be able to fill and feel like you've always been there. • Commercial space in Port Kembla • Main shopping strip in town – Wentworth Street • Large window frontage and floorplan • Timber floors and high ceilings • Includes toilet, kitchen and storage room • Great opportunity in growing suburb! Here's what we're talking about. A large footprint – one that includes provision for a reception (if needed) and open office/shop space. At the rear of the property, you'll also find a toilet, kitchen and storage. There is also convenient rear access through the back office. With high ceilings, there is a definite sense of space throughout – never cramped or dark. The light, airy interiors are welcoming for both staff and clients. The wide shop frontage and ample window display space offers plenty of engagement with the passing foot and road traffic. As a result, this space would suit a variety of business ventures. All that remains is to take a look for yourself and add your own vision to this address. And if you're looking for any more of a sign, we are located just across the road!
