

93 Ellangowan Road, Yorklea, NSW 2470

Other For Sale

Tuesday, 25 June 2024

93 Ellangowan Road, Yorklea, NSW 2470

Area: 57400 m2

Type: Other

Andrew Summerville
0429620362

Jeremy Millar
0477040486

Auction

Auction Location: On site Have a look at this beautiful CHEAP piece of land with a reserve of under $100,000. With just over 14 wonderful acres, two dams and a little waterway splitting the property down the middle this place is perfect for the weekend escape. With plenty of space to ride motorbikes, take a walk through the hardwood forest, you might even spot a koala, or throw a line in the water to catch your dinner. It is the perfect place to give your kids the rural experience you have always wanted them to have without having the workload of a full sized farm. The memories created here will last a lifetime. It really is a nature lovers paradise with a wide variety of native species using this place as their home. Situated only 5 minutes from downtown Casino the location is perfect for those who don't want to venture too far from civilisation but still desire that rural experience. Give us a call today to book an inspection. We will be auctioning this property on the 2nd of August 2024.*Please note this property does not have a building entitlement and is subject to flooding.