Embrace the quintessential Australian dream of land ownership with this expansive 53.61-acre plot nestled on Moyreisk Rd, Redbank, Vic. Poised for the visionary, this vast swathe of farming-zoned land offers a tantalising canvas for constructing your bespoke rural retreat (STCA) or establishing an idyllic weekend haven away from the urban sprawl. This serene parcel is gently undulating, adorned with native shrubbery, and bordered by reasonable fencing, with some sections beckoning a touch of TLC. Discover a sizeable dam within its bounds, complemented by pockets of clearings that conjure perfect settings for camping escapades under the stars. While services are a nod to the self-sufficient at heart, the potential for off-grid living (SCTA) here is boundless. Relish the tranquillity, yet remain connected to urban centres with Melbourne and Geelong 2-2 ½ hours drive, while Bendigo and Ballarat are within an 1 ½ hours. Seize this rare opportunity to craft your own rural legacy on a substantial acreage where nature's beauty and seclusion abound. Your country chapter starts at Moyreisk Rd. The front gate to the property is located approximately 1.5km North of the Moonambel-Natte Yallock Rd and Moyreisk Rd intersection. Contact for details.
