Nestled within the reach of Tallwood's exemplary facilities, this immaculately crafted Honeysuckle home epitomizes graceful living combined with functional elegance. The home invites serenity and comfort with two well-proportioned bedrooms; the master suite boasts an ensuite, ensuring a private and tranquil retreat. An additional multi-purpose room presents a flexible space, perfect for a cozy TV room or welcoming guest quarters. The heart of the home is the spacious open-plan living and dining area, which harmoniously transitions through triple slider doors into a covered alfresco, extending your living space into the picturesque outdoors. The backyard provides a perfect canvas for garden enthusiasts or a peaceful haven for your morning coffee. Culinary adventures await in the Hamptons-style kitchen, finished with chic shaker cabinetry doors, lustrous Caesarstone countertops, sophisticated Hafele cabinet handles, and a gleaming glass splashback. Storage is plentiful, allowing the kitchen to maintain its aesthetic appeal without sacrificing practicality. The residence is complimented by top-tier finishes that include quality Heartridge vinyl plank flooring, lending a touch of luxury underfoot. Eco-friendly 3.3k solar panels and Daikin zoned ducted air conditioning enable a comfortable environment year-round, while the soaring 2.7m internal ceilings amplify the sense of space and light. Safety and security are paramount, featuring robust Invisiguard screen doors and window screens, paired with a digital entry lock system. The convenience extends to the double garage, which sports a durable epoxy floor, providing a clean and sleek look. Completing the home's allure are premium quality shutters and Veri Shade window coverings, striking a balance between elegance and privacy. With its blend of sophistication, comfort, and prime location, this Honeysuckle residence is more than a home—it's a lifestyle promise. Call Kim 0460000773 for a tour and inspection.
