"Top Paddock" Looking for a weekend escape or a country getaway, with the ability to make extra income at the same time? This picturesque property is set on over 600 acres of freehold forest grazing, consistently running approx 60 head of dry heifers. Improvements include timber stockyards, 1 dam and 1 bore equipped with solar pump* An old bush camp (previously used for the Boyne Valley Mountain Challenge) is still standing and with some TLC would make the perfect weekend getaway. The camp consists of a toilet block, bar and stage area, set alongside Scrubby Creek that runs through the middle of the property* Country runs from undulating hollows to steeper hilly country adjoining Mt Hector* Stands of ironbark and gum trees available for harvest* Situated a short 15 min drive from the township of Ubobo with general store & post office agency Now more than ever is the perfect time to own your own private country retreat
