Welcome to 10 Devorgilla Avenue, where timeless elegance meets contemporary luxury. Crafted through meticulous collaboration between Cera Stribley Architecture, Jack Merlo Gardens, and Healey & Co Projects, this garden residence envelops you in refined sophistication. Inspired by the lush greenery and classical charm of Toorak, every facet of this home is meticulously designed to elevate your living experience. Step inside to discover a sanctuary of indulgence, where clean lines, luxurious textures, and natural light converge to create an atmosphere of unparalleled comfort. The living spaces feature European Oak timber floors, bespoke joinery, and feature lighting, exuding warmth and opulence. Expansive windows offer a garden outlook of the serene courtyard, while three generous bedrooms provide havens of tranquillity with soft, neutral tones and luxurious finishes. The main bedroom includes a sumptuous ensuite with bath and double vanity, an integrated walk-in wardrobe and desk space for added convenience. The heart of the home, the kitchen, boasts integrated joinery, a butler's pantry, and top-of-the-line appliances. Adjacent, the dining area seamlessly transitions to the outdoors for al fresco dining and leisurely gatherings. Beyond your abode, the vibrant streets of Toorak offer upscale boutiques, gourmet eateries, and cultural delights just moments away. Indulge in Melbourne's premier retail. Additional features include fitted study, two secure basement car spaces, intercom, fob access, and ducted air-conditioning.
