Nestled at the end of a tranquil cul-de-sac, here is a premier opportunity to build your dream home. This East-facing allotment of approximately 671 square metres offers an abundance of space for first home buyers, investors, and families looking to establish their roots in a serene coastal community. As a blank canvas, this land promises the freedom to design a residence that truly reflects your lifestyle and aspirations. The location of this property is exceptional, offering peace and privacy while being situated near established treed reserves and Screw Creek, enhancing the sense of escape and connection with nature. Yet, it remains conveniently close to Inverloch's vibrant town centre, pristine beaches, and local amenities, ensuring all life's necessities are within easy reach. Take advantage of this chance to create a home designed to fit your lifestyle. Don't let this opportunity slip by to secure one of the few remaining vacant lots in the estate.
