From an elevated position, in the heart of Midway Point, this prime parcel of land offers the opportunity to build your dream home in an established homes area. The gently sloping lot has a fantastic aspect, allowing the future build (STCA) to capture all day sunshine. The well positioned land provides stunning water views over Orielson Lagoon and the surrounding landscapes. Midway Point continues to be a suburb growing in popularity, boasting a peaceful and relaxed atmosphere away from busier suburbs. Positioned an easy highway commute of just 20-minutes to the CBD, and just over 5-minutes to Sorell where you will find all services including major supermarkets, cafes, restaurants and schools. With the title issued, this land is ready now for you to start planning your next chapter. For further information or to organise a viewing, please get in touch today.
