This immaculate turn-of-the-century residence is one of Riverstone's original properties and represents a rare and prized opportunity to acquire a large heritage homestead in this popular community. Its façade has been beautifully preserved and bears all the hallmarks of its refined Victorian Italianate style, plus it sits on a supremely expansive 3,675 sqm block of land with three street frontages. All the elements are here to add wonderful appeal and make a great family living space in Sydney's exciting north-west growth region. Occupying an expansive, super-deep block of land that faces north-to-the-front Well-presented throughout and featuring many retained period details Current layout has three bedrooms, two bathrooms and three living spaces Traditional wraparound verandah, stone pizza oven and spacious outdoor entertainment areas Excellent future potential for an update or redesign to suit individual needs Three street frontages with car access from Riverstone Rd and Multan St Short distance to Rouse Hill town centre, schools and Riverstone station
