Be part of the Five Farms' community, where kids walk to school together and have the happiest adventures, playing with their friends in the fresh air. With a future childcare centre, St Josephine Bakhita Catholic Primary School, a future secondary school, Allendale Residents' Club with an outdoor pool and gym, all inclusive play space Silo park, jogging and bike paths, a future town centre and more within walking distance, all you could want for your growing family is a few steps from home. Life at Five Farms will extend far beyond your front step. Just as it was in the past, there will be a sense of community from the start, with inviting public spaces providing plenty of meeting places for you to make friends. That's the goal of Five Farms. To provide a home where you can not only live, but live well.*T&Cs apply.
