"This premium parcel of land boasts a rare flat terrain, making it highly sought after for development. With an impressive width of 17.47 meters, this property offers ample space to accommodate various dream home designs, whether you envision a two- or three-story home. Its enviable location facing a parkland not only enhances its appeal but also ensures a picturesque setting for residents. Additionally, the convenience of being within walking distance of Robertson School adds to its desirability. Surrounding the area are luxurious homes, further elevating the prestige and ambiance of the neighborhood, making it an increasingly desirable place to live."
