Build your forever home on this generous allotment offering the best of Southern Peninsula living. Treed outlooks and bay views underpin value in a location with a blank canvass to design your own residence or 2nd home. Neighbouring established quality homes and high spec newly built or under construction properties, the allotment at 7 Jackson way sits proudly among some of the best real estate on the Mornington Peninsula. Beaches, walking tracks and retail amenities are all within close proximity and ensure that this location will serve its next custodians for many years to come. Plans and a site survey have been prepared for a 4 bedroom home including 2 master suites and a rumpus room with dual lock up garage with internal access. Thoughtfully crafted indoor and outdoor living captures alfresco spaces that capitalise on the views and tranquillity of this block. Commanding over 1,400 square meters (Approx.) this property is positioned to sell to an astute buyer who will benefit from capital growth assured by its blue chip location.
