Tightly held for the past 25 years, this prized ocean view block presents a blank canvas for the new owner's delight. The expansive view spanning 180 degrees from the East Coast to the magnificent Glass House Mountains. An onsite inspection is a must for this one to get a true sense of its natural beauty and the sheer size of the block. Large landholdings on top of Buderim are few and far between, making this an ideal investment or even more ideal canvas for your future home. Located just a short stroll or bike ride to Buderim Village with all of the local amenities quite literally on your doorstep. From groceries to fine dining, you can enjoy what Buderim has to offer from daylight to dusk, with the renowned coastal hub just a further drive from the escapement. A labour of love is the best way to describe the manner in which our sellers have passionately nurtured the garden into a landscaper's dream, with flowering natives, perennials and established mature trees. - ?
