For Sale: Award-Winning Natural Mineral Water Business in Australia Discover an extraordinary opportunity to own an award-winning natural mineral water business, sourced from the pristine aquifers of the Snowy Mountains, Australia. This turnkey, walk-in, walk-out enterprise is perfectly poised for expansion and success. Situated on a sprawling 158 hectare freehold farm, the business boasts a state-of-the-art bottling plant and a modern factory. As a proud family-owned venture, it's built on quality and integrity, ready to scale new heights in market penetration. With a current commercial license and the ability to increase capacity fourfold, the potential turnover could soar beyond $40 million. The business already serves a diverse customer base, including premium restaurants, retail outlets, and direct online sales. With Australians spending an average of $580 each on bottled water in 2021, the market demand is robust, positioning this enterprise for significant growth. Seize the chance to lead this prestigious brand, renowned for its pure, mineral-rich water, to greater success. Contact us today to explore this unparalleled business opportunity in the thriving bottled water industry.
