Magill Retirement Village is situated on landscaped award winning gardens, just 8km east of Adelaide. Our residents participate in a great activities and social program and get together for trips in the village bus, concerts, snooker, indoor bowls and barbeques. Magill offers a variety of unit types and has something to suit a range of residents. We're also pet friendly! Extra care is available to Magill residents should they require it with staff available 24 hours. Local doctors also make house calls and there are medical consulting rooms available at the village for visiting practitioners. Magill Retirement Village is only minutes to a major shopping centre, banks, post office and many small retail outlets.
