Great First Home or Downsizer

Situated in George Town, just a short stroll to the centre of town and the waterfront, this neat two-bedroom unit will be perfect for someone looking to get their first foot in to the real estate market, with the grants currently on offer for first home buyers to do so. This property is very affordable and mortgage repayments will be very manageable in the current climate.

The property itself is very solid in structure and you can really make it your own once you move in. Having such great beaches a short drive away, and being a flat town with a very modern hospital nearby George Town is also ideal for those looking to retire to the quieter life.

The property may also be a good investment option, with tourism increasing in the area year on year and a massive expansion planned in the industrial sector of Bell Bay. For your own private viewing call Peter Lees Real Estate today.
