Beautifully Renovated Historic Home in Unbeatable Lifestyle Location

Combining the old-world charm of days gone by with a tasteful renovation perfect for modern living, this c.1876 Victorian terrace presents an oasis of comfort in one of the inner City's most enchanting neighbourhoods. Beautifully presented, with quality finishes and undeniable street appeal, it is perfectly nestled between Sydney's vibrant CBD and the leafy, peaceful Millers Point village, with endless dining, shopping and transport options only a few steps away.

- Lovingly restored historic terrace with significant architectural heritage and abundant character
- Practical floor plan across two levels, with three well-proportioned bedrooms and a bathroom on each floor
- Gourmet gas kitchen with island bench & plentiful cupboard space, generous dining area
- Spacious dual lounge with stunningly restored dual fireplaces, polished timber floors throughout
- Master suite contains another beautiful fireplace and a charming Victorian balcony with corrugated iron balustrade
- Low-maintenance paved courtyard with rear-lane access, framed by dramatic rock face
- Minutes' stroll to elegant Barangaroo shopping & dining, The Rocks historic precinct & all the conveniences of Sydney's bustling CBD
- Bus, train and metro transport at the doorstep, footsteps from Kent Street tennis courts & Observatory Hill

Perfect for:

Lifestyle-driven professionals, downsizers and families looking for a seamless fusion of Sydney's nostalgic history with the convenience of modern, cosmopolitan living.
