Nestled in the bustling hub of Wonthaggi, this spacious three-bedroom townhouse promises both comfort and convenience. Ideally located just a short walk from the town centre, this residence is a perfect fit for discerning investors and retirees seeking low-maintenance living. Spread across two levels, the property features two generously sized living areas, offering ample space for relaxation and entertainment. Each of the three bedrooms is beautifully appointed, and the two bathrooms cater to both guests and residents with ease. A large double garage provides secure parking and additional storage options. Outside, the built-in outdoor area presents a serene setting for al fresco dining or simply basking in the tranquil atmosphere. The townhouse is positioned in a central location, with its proximity to local amenities, including shops, dining establishments, and leisure facilities, making it an ideal investment or a peaceful haven for retirees.
