Entirely individual and independent, featuring its own impressive frontage to a sought after street, this free-standing residence is desirably close to Williamstown High School and Williamstown Beach train station. The natural beauty of polished timber floors and the quality of an open-plan kitchen complement desirable downstairs living and dining spaces. Above, two bedrooms beneath soaring raked ceilings share a central bathroom where the excellence of its renovation is instantly clear. Heating/cooling graces each room of this outstanding property, accompanied by an upstairs study zone, downstairs laundry, separate powder room, secure storage, tranquil courtyard entertaining and convenient off street parking.
