Immersed by its lush landscape through walls of double glazing, the home sits at one with nature, echoing its beauty through a stunning symphony of organic materials. European Oak is paved in herringbone pattern, meandering through the open plan layout to a large courtyard. From day to day, the space nurtures relaxation and dining, effortlessly transforming to lively celebrations when crowds of family and friends arrive. Dressed in contrasting woodgrain and two-pack cabinetry, and topped in lustrous marble, the kitchen serves guests across a glamorous island bar. An exciting set of Miele appliances pampers the host, including a combi-microwave-steam oven, and a Fisher and Paykel integrated fridge and freezer. The accommodation fosters serene sanctuary, comprising of master bedroom including spacious ensuite with a soaker tub, bedroom two and bedroom three are lavishly sized with bespoke robes. Providing a guest bathroom/powder room and a European laundry, the home is cocooned in today's best comforts, completed by two secure carparks and a storage cage. Nurturing a warm community atmosphere, 'Highpark Seasons' indulges its residents with a central barbecue terrace amid landscaped gardens, a fireside lounge with a television and kitchenette, and a gymnasium. Positioned minutes from Malvern Road's eateries, shopping, and trams, Glen Iris station, and Harold Hold Swim Centre, this privileged location has everything within reach, including the Monash arterial for a quick commute to the city or coast.
