Bright and light split-level townhouse with spacious proportions

Charmed by a leafy position in the boutique 'Knightsbridge' enclave, this brick townhouse surprises with a brilliant split-level layout design optimised for light-filled living, amplified by lofty raked ceilings framed by stunning clerestory windows. A north-facing courtyard entry welcomes breezy interiors connected by polished wood flooring spanning open plan lounge and dining spaces to rear bedrooms delighting with a private decked garden. Traditional functionality unfolds through a separate kitchen and internal laundry, clever storage solutions take advantage of an exciting architectural footprint, including an innovative lower-level multi-purpose room complemented by a separate garage and further storage. Boasting indulgent access to a sparkling complex inground pool within a peaceful setting, moments from a fine selection of schools, and footsteps from the convenience of Waitara train station.
