This brand-new, light-filled home in the heart of Thornbury consists of two sizeable, freshly carpeted bedrooms. Features include a fully tiled kitchen with a walking pantry a generous island bench, and stainless steel appliances including a top-tier 900mm Westinghouse cooktop, oven, and Westinghouse dishwasher. Downstairs comprises a spacious master bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe and a fully tiled ensuite with a spacious shower. A light-filled hallway is complemented by a generous study space, separate laundry with ample bench and storage space, and a separate powder room upon entry for guests. The open plan living and dining zone followed by floor-to-ceiling sliding doors opens to a decking space surrounded by high fences and a sizeable North-facing backyard accompanied by a remote control gate and car space. Upstairs consists of one generous bedroom accompanied by a floor-to-ceiling tiled main bathroom and generous rumpus room/second living space, opening to a stunning balcony with floor-to-ceiling sliding doors allowing an abundance of natural light. Other features in this luxury home include a Daikin Inverter Bulkhead system throughout, with the option to operate in any specific room at any time, ample storage space, privacy blinds and double-glazed windows throughout. This property is in a premium location, positioned just 20 metres from High Street, Thornbury shops/cafes, Tram #86, a short walk to Thornbury Train Station, other amenities such as Penders Park, Northcote Plaza Shopping Precinct, All Nations Park, and local schools such as Thornbury High School and Northcote High School.
