Find your way into this secret Dendy Park precinct court and find Brighton East's best buy amongst the prestige homes appearing here! Just 450m to Dendy Park, this substantial three bedroom, two bathroom home styled to suit every stage of Bayside life with a vast ground-floor master-suite for ease and privacy, and a dedicated first-floor bedroom level for kids, grandkids and guests. Offering a space for everybody with free-flowing formal and family zones to relax and entertain, there's even a handy first-floor study/retreat for work or play. Representing rare family, investment and down-size value with a prestige appliance kitchen, quality bathrooms and large family laundry, this classic design features first-class finishes including stone benchtops, Australian hardwood floors, individual reverse-cycle climate control to every room, and fresh new paintwork and carpets throughout. Wrapped by north-westerly grounds, these easy-care outdoors include a entertainer's courtyard plus a sunny master-suite deck, and abundant car accommodation in a huge double auto-garage. Situated in a Dendy Park precinct court, there are the parklands around the corner, a major retail and rail hub within minutes' walk, and the CBD within an easy road commute or safe cycle via the bike path at the door.
