An impressively proportioned north-facing open-plan living room frames views across the tranquil courtyard which is sized for entertaining, while floorboards expand internally to adjoining kitchen with near new custom cabinetry, dishwasher and impressive storage/bench space.

Upstairs, two great size bedrooms each feature built-in robes including the north-facing main bedroom, while a central bathroom set beneath a towering ceiling features a separate bath and roomy shower. The staircase landing services as an additional home study, or versatile space.

Step out the front door and enjoy the proximity to a variety of tram routes, High Street's shops and cafes, Hawksburn Village, Lumley and Victoria Gardens and the Chapel Street precinct.

Welcome home.
