The big picture. A lifestyle dream for busy families who spend their weekdays working and studying hard followed by weekends of sport, leisure and dining out, this four bedroom, three bathroom residence is a luxurious low-maintenance prize. Enjoying a high-side, street facing position on a leafy boulevard, all generations will adore the easy walk to Hartwell train station and the Camberwell Road tram bound for Camberwell Junction, private schools and the city.

The finer details. The façade basks in wonderful northern sunshine, revealing interiors where high ceilings and expansive double glazing provide an airy ambience throughout. A gas log fire graces the open-plan living/dining room, accompanied by an enormous full-height sliding door out to the private courtyard for alfresco enjoyment. Dressed in stone, the kitchen will spark joy in the resident chef, appointed with a V-Zug oven and Teppanyaki grill.

The extras. Walking distance to Monaco's Deli and tasty local cafes, meet friends for a delicious dining experience at nearby Camberwell Junction. Watch the latest movies at the Rivoli Cinema, shop for providore-fresh food at the market and then either catch the tram, train or stroll back home. Zoned for Camberwell High School, live near Strathcona, Siena College, Presbyterian Ladies' College, Camberwell South Primary and St Cecilia's Primary School.
