Space and alluring retro charm

Exhibiting quaint and unique original charm which is matched by generous proportions, and one of only two properties in the entire building giving you space and privacy that is so sought-after, this unforgettable 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom ground floor apartment is simply unmissable.

Those who have nostalgia for the past will embrace the gorgeous and customised period detail that this property delivers. While very liveable as is, you have the option to add stylish contemporary upgrades to the property to bring it into the 21st century. And for those with grander plans, the other apartment in the complex (1/57 Wando Road) is also up for sale, giving you the opportunity to buy both and transform them into one grand and luxurious property.

Highlights of the delightful apartment include a wide and airy entry, expansive lounge room with built-in storage and bespoke pull-out bar that needs to be seen to be believed, sizeable casual dining which feeds into the kitchen with updated stainless steel appliances, enormous master bedroom with great BIR storage and private ensuite, 2 other well-sized bedrooms, classic bathroom, laundry, reverse cycle heating and cooling, secure intercom entry, garden, and single garage.

This sensational Wando Road position has you so close to Alma Park, Caulfield Grammar School, Caulfield Junior College, Orrong Road and Alma Road shops including a Woolworths Metro supermarket, High Street Armadale shops, Malvern Central, Glenferrie Road shopping strip, buses, Dandenong Highway trams, and Armadale and Malvern Stations.
