Tucked away in an idyllic garden setting is this stunning, north-facing three-bedroom home offering multiple living options over four floors with an internal quality & style only matched by the prestigious surroundings of arguably Melbourne's best suburb. Stepping inside you're greeted with oak timber floors underfoot, high ceilings, expansive open plan living and dining area that lead to a best-in-class kitchen with European appliances, granite stone benchtops and plenty of storage and bench space to let your culinary skills run wild. Head upstairs or down to the sleeping quarters, two, three or four bedrooms, the choice is yours, with three fully renovated bathrooms and exceptional storage throughout and a private terrace on the lower level for BBQs, alfresco events or just the morning coffee. The highlight of the home is the flexibility of the layout, four bedrooms, three bedrooms plus study, two bedrooms plus study plus rumpus, the space is here, and you can utilise it in the way you desire. All of this is set within beautifully landscaped gardens, with access to communal heated pools and gym and just an easy stroll to all Melbourne's highlights!
