This immaculately presented three bedroom single-level home situated in a quiet and tightly held complex is your entry to Gungahlin! Suited to a wide range of buyers; whether you're a first home buyer, downsizer or investor, this home is ready for its new owners to walk straight in. Featuring a floorplan which flows seamlessly, all three bedrooms are segregated, generous in size and drenched in natural light. All rooms showcase built in wardrobes with the master boasting a 'his and her' wardrobe. The bathroom has been tastefully renovated with a separate bath and WC for contemporary convenience. The living area provides flexible options and enough space for relaxation and entertainment. The heart of this home is the kitchen, as you walk through you will be in awe of the quality appliances and storage! The dining area is separate to the living, providing a humble space for connecting over family meals or dinner parties. Sliding doors from the dining area open to an expansive and welcoming space for entertaining with a beautiful deck, grassed back yard for kids and pets, as well as mature gardens, fruit trees and a garden shed. It has been designed with easy care entertaining in mind, with plenty of space for a BBQ, fire pit and play equipment. This home goes above and beyond with no expense or effort being spared. On offer is a wide range of additional features that are truly unique – 16 solar panels for inexpensive outgoings, ceiling fans in the master and living, ducted reverse cycle heating and cooling, brand new carpet throughout, separate highly functional laundry, block out blinds on all windows, and a large single garage with additional parking options. Perfectly positioned in a quaint pocket of a leafy complex, this property is just a short stroll from the popular Palmerston District Primary School, local Palmerston shops, several ovals, playgrounds, and public transport to Gungahlin, Civic and Belconnen.
