Experience absolute water frontage in this breathtaking townhouse on the shores of Lake Tuggeranong. Just two years old, this prestigious property boasts a light-filled living space, sumptuous bedrooms and uninterrupted water views. This is a rare opportunity to own one of the few true waterfront residences in Canberra. Perfect for professionals, first home buyers and downsizers, it's got space, style and practicality in a picture-perfect location. The spacious open-plan living area features 2.7 metre ceilings and natural light beaming through north facing windows and glass sliding doors. The kitchen is equipped with the finest European appliances, stone benchtops, sleek custom cabinetry and an expansive island bench. The living space extends out to the courtyard that perfectly captures the waterfront location with breathtaking views and tranquil setting. It's the ultimate spot to entertain friends, dine under the stars or bask in the sun. Upstairs the king-sized master bedroom makes the most of the picturesque setting through full-length windows. The opulent ensuite includes floating dual sinks, oversized shower and floor to ceiling tiles. The second bedroom is generous in size and caters for guests, home office or kids, topped off with a magnificent family bathroom decked out with quality designer fittings. Situated in Tuggeranong's exclusive waterfront precinct, you're moments from cafes, restaurants, shopping and entertainment with fast transport links to other town centres. You also have lakeside walking and bike paths on your doorstep, connecting to gyms, local pool and Tuggeranong Park. Don't miss the chance to make this exceptional home your own and secure your own slice of lakeside luxury.
