Presenting 58/220 Chapel Rd, Keysborough, an embodiment of contemporary living, meticulously designed for opulence and ease. This bi-level townhouse, embellished with a sophisticated brick exterior and lofty, north-facing windows, fills the space with sunlight, enveloping it in a welcoming glow. Central to this abode is a sprawling open-concept living area seamlessly merging with an alfresco dining spot, enclosed by shutters/blinds, ideal for hosting gatherings or serene family nights. The kitchen, a mid-sized culinary sanctuary, showcases an island counter, breakfast bar, and is furnished with top-tier Bosch appliances, including a 5-burner gas cooktop, gas oven, and dishwasher, all in elegant stainless steel. This dwelling boasts four generously proportioned bedrooms, all ensconced in soft carpeting and bathed in natural light, with the primary suite featuring a lavish ensuite complete with a shower, tub, and dual vanity. Each bedroom incorporates built-in wardrobes, ensuring ample organisational space. For optimum climate regulation, the townhouse is outfitted with split system air conditioning units in the master bedroom, a secondary bedroom, the living area, and dining zone. A European-style laundry facility adds to the convenience of this modern home. Outdoor living is enhanced by a private entry via a front porch/balcony, while the automatic garage offers secure parking with seamless access to the residence. Nestled in a bustling community, 58/220 Chapel Rd is mere moments from Sirius College, Mt Hira College, Lighthouse Christian College, Keysborough Gardens Primary School, and Woolworths Keysborough, making it an idyllic choice for families seeking both elegance and practicality.
