With its innovative design, great presentation and superb location in the south end of the city, this three bedroom townhouse will appeal to the homeowner and investor alike. Downstairs comprises spacious living area with polished boards and electronically controlled skylight filtering light to the ground floor, well equipped, cleverly designed kitchen with 900mm oven, gas hotplates, dishwasher and generous storage and workspace, laundry and third WC. Upstairs features large, private master bedroom with balcony, ensuite bathroom and built in robes, second and third bedrooms (2nd with built in robe) and family bathroom. Ducted reverse cycle air conditioning, secure off street car parking with direct entry to the home, alarm system and security door complete the picture. Located just off South terrace, this property is perfectly positioned only a short walk to the tramline, King William and Pulteney Streets, the south parklands and Pulteney Grammar school.
