The concept of the contemporary family home - where luxury meets low-maintenance and quality takes priority - reaches peak desirability throughout this scintillating residence on an ideal allotment featuring a northerly rear aspect. Living and dining areas that lead to the backdrop's pergola entertaining and established lawn are complemented by an open-plan kitchen where stone benches, a substantial island, sophisticated appliances and designer cabinetry convey un-mistakeable excellence. Four beautiful bedrooms, including three with walk-in robes, and three flawless fully tiled bathrooms are arranged so that the master suite can be adopted downstairs or above, while the upstairs retreat and balcony add to the allure. A downstairs study zone is an intelligent addition in a design featuring heating/cooling, naturally, and every modern comfort. A separate laundry, a secure garage and driveway parking space further enhance the opportunity to live family life today's way close to Altona North Primary School, Langshaw Reserve, the Second Avenue Grocer and Millers Junction.
