Welcome to 47 Bedford Crescent, Eagleby, your quaint haven tucked away on a spacious 621 square metre corner property in a calm and peaceful street. This charming 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom home offers the ideal balance of contemporary conveniences and classic charm, making it a refuge for garden enthusiasts. You'll be charmed by the property's verdant surroundings and the quiet neighbourhood as you get closer. The large, well-kept garden beckons you to stroll about and relax. Though you're only a short distance from the M1, this unusual corner block offers seclusion as well as a gorgeous view of horses, giving you the feeling of being in the country. Once inside, you'll find a house that skilfully blends modern comforts with the allure of bygone eras. A main feature of the remodelled kitchen is its sleek, contemporary design that nonetheless manages to look classic. It is the centre of the house, where everyday practicality and creative cooking collide. Despite its age, the house is a tribute to excellent construction and lasting quality. Carefully applied finishing touches improve the overall appeal and establish a cosy and welcoming atmosphere. It's the perfect place to live for families or people who like having additional space because the three well-appointed bedrooms offer comfort and spaciousness.
