Located within short walking distance to town and public transport, this well-presented town home has only had one owner since new and sits alone on it's own title with no body corporate. If it's independent low maintenance you're after – look no further – we found it! Featuring spacious living zones, massive kitchen and extra-large bedrooms, this town home also boasts ducted heating and reverse cycle air conditioning. An oversized single lock up garage completes the package. Priced to sell, so book your inspection today!
