Welcome to the elegantly renovated two-bedroom property positioned in a thriving suburb of Norlane West, with convenience at its core. This property, one of only two on the block, commands a prime position at the front and signifies a natural flow of comfortable living in an enticingly convenient location. As you drive up the driveway, the assurance of security is prominent with an allocated secure garage positioned at the rear of the property. The entrance ushers you into a sun-lit living room that flows seamlessly into the adjoining dining room and kitchen, ideal for those who cherish enjoying their meals in a cozy, well-lit space. The kitchen, the heart of any home, is fully renovated, featuring alluring white subway tiles as a splash back, majestic granite style bench tops and brand new, quality appliances, ready to inspire delicious home-cooked meals. Venture to the rear of the living room, where you will find the two spacious bedrooms with BIRs, distinguished by their ambient natural lighting and brushed with contemporary elegance, serviced by a separate toilet and a striking updated bathroom. The property's locale enhances its charm by offering friendly parkland at its backdoor, the Leisuretime Sports Precinct, esteemed schools, and the bustling Bellpost Shopping Centre, all within a convenient walking distance, and Ring Road access is merely a few turns away. This newly renovated property effortlessly blends practicality and style, offering the ideal space for those seeking a well-situated, move-in-ready option. Whether you are a first-time buyer, downsizer, or investor, this property warrants your immediate attention. Due Diligence checklist are available at www.consumer.vic.gov.au/duediligencechecklist
