Mid-century charm, sunlit contemporary appeal

A light filled haven of space, scope and Mid-Century charisma featuring exposed brick showcases peaceful inner urban lifestyle convenience, steps from transport, cafes, schools and walking trails. As one of only five, buyers of all stages stand to reap the benefits of this spacious, single level villa residence, complete with private alfresco entertaining within landscaped surrounds, taking full advantage of a north easterly orientation.

High ceilings, timber floors and ducted heating make for immediate comfort within an expansive, open plan living and dining zone welcoming in an abundance of natural light. A bright central kitchen with stone countertops, ample bench space and storage centres the home. Two generous and light filled bedrooms comprise built in robes, serviced by a beautifully renovated bathroom with luxe bathtub, separate powder room and modern walk in shower, allowing for exceptional ease of use. Includes its own laundry, split system heating/cooling, security doors, carport parking and additional outdoor storage built in.

Steps from Cotham Road and Burke Road trams, Deepdene Village shops, walking distance from Deepdene Primary School across the Road as well as Genazzano College and Our Lady of Good Counsel Primary School.
