This charming, single level brick residence beckons first homebuyers, renovators and investors alike, offering scope to personalise/add value with a contemporary revamp of its generous proportions and exceptional position, steps from Union Road cafes, wine bars, shops, Coles, parks and Union station. Peacefully positioned within a quiet, treelined streetscape as one of just four amongst a boutique block, this spacious unit boasts secure garage parking, split system heating/cooling and a private, wrap around courtyard. A sunny westerly orientation and high ceilings introduce an expansive living room with leafy outlooks, whilst a central kitchen and dining area centres the home. Accommodation includes two sizeable bedrooms with built in robes, serviced by a main bathroom with separate powder room. Additional attributes include its own laundry, undercover porch and private position tucked neatly just out of sight from the street. Take full advantage of this serene lifestyle locale, walking distance from every conceivable amenity.
